

From Beyond

Darzamat

Swinged I am wearing feathers
Dance tangled thoughts go mad
Swinged I am thought to fly
Whirl fall and come back again

The wind that dances on stormy sky
And rainy silver mist
Flash in deep eyes of the stars
The taste of night which spread her spell

For now when I'm gone I really do exist

All this takes me high above the earth
All this makes me breathe
All this makes me change my mind
And closer to me will get when I close my eyes

He looks so different I am calm
I get rid of my shame I don't hide my eyes
And I speak nothing in return radiate
I melt in difference
He knows I feel

Swinged I am shown the path
Watch do not think follow
Swinged I am caress of madness
Get might skills and will
