The Longest Journey

Darzamat

Let it be the longest journey the longest journey of your existence let's meet on the border of magic the border of tangibility and fantasy

Where the darkness fascinates where the dark gives no pain which thought closes the gates?
which thought opens the dreams?

I cross the depths of the crowd
I walk through the depths of the crowd I can't see you I pass you by I close my eyes I'm swimming

Take me to the unreal world the most beautiful of my dreams the longest journey of my existence
I close my eyes
I'm swimming
