

A Different Beat

Das Pop

Yeah
Another different beat
And I am back on my feet, man
It's in the air that I breathe
When I go out in the evening
I think you ought to know
You've got to let it grow, oh yeah
And you've got to feel what you feel
What you feel
What you feel
You're a modern man
Come again
Oh yeah
I know a beautiful boy who fell in love
With a great girl
I meant to tell you before
But you were never available
I think you ought to know
You've got to let it grow, oh yeah
And you've got to feel what you feel
You're a modern man
Come again
Oh yeah
Baby pay me
Will you pay me well
Baby play me
When I ring my bell
Baby make me
Do anything you tell
