

Rapture

Data

I've been walking in the rain again
Too bad for the record we were never friends
I want you with your back up against the wall
I want you in the hallways at the shopping mall
(2x)

She said, baby, we could never be friends
I love you until the end
I'll never tell you again

Well, she's been telling her lies again
Running around with other men
I've been wasting my life with this heart break baby, been done out in this rapture of love
(2x)

Well if she brought time to the table, it was never enough
I see the train, going home, that could never pull out
She gets high in the station on her way home from work
She gets high before we fuck because I'm never enough, no-no

We could never be friends (4x)

We could never be friends
I love you until the end
