

Crawling Back to You

Daughtry

Lessons learned and bridges burned to the ground and it's to late now to put out the fire tables turn and I'm the ones who's burning now well I'm doing all right till I close my eyes and then I see your face and it's no surprise..

And just like that I'm crawling back to you just like you said I would yeah..
swallow my pride I'm crawling back to you I'm out of my head can't wait any longer
I'm down on my knee's I thought I was stronger just like that like you said I would do I'm crawling back to you

Time can heal, but the scars only hide the way you feel and it's hard to forget how I left you hanging holding by a thread, when everything is said I regret it
Yeah, I was doin' alright, thought I could make it Then I see your face and it's hard to fake it

And just like that I'm crawling back to you
just like you said I would yeah..
I'm out of my head can't wait any longer
I'm down on my knee's I thought I was stronger
just like that like you said I would do
I'm crawling back to you

If I could find a way I would to give everything I know I would take it all back If only I knew that I could. lessons learned and bridges burned to the ground and it's to late now to put out the fire.

And just like that I'm crawling back to you
just like you said I would yeah..
swallow my pride I'm crawling back to you
I'm out of my head can't wait any longer
I'm down on my knee's I thought I was stronger
just like that like you said I would do
I'm crawling back to you

Yeah, I'm crawling back to you Ohhh, yeah, yeah!
Oh!

Crawling back to you
I'm crawling back to you
Ohhh
