

Heartbroken Down

Dave Barnes

Woke from a dream this morning
And I couldn't shake the dust.
Dreamed you up and left me, forgot about us.
I'd gone all kinds of crazy.
I was sleeping in the yard.
Started looking like John the Baptist, Lord, I took it hard, so hard.

I was heartbroken down,
Living with my head hanging to the ground.
There was no way back from the lost I'd found.
Heartbroken down.

I remember putting up posters.
Hoping you'd been seen.
I had them all translated, sent them overseas.
Oh, I offered money,
I offered everything I had.
Which was just a couple boxes and some milk gone bad.

I was heartbroken down,
Living with my head hanging to the ground.
There was no way back from the lost I'd found.
Heartbroken down.

Morning come waking up still in love, I've never been so happy.
Baby, please, never leave, I'm incomplete without you.

I was heartbroken, heartbroken
Love stupid, love stupid
Heartbroken, heartbroken

I was heartbroken down,
Living with my head hanging to the ground.
There was no way back from the lost I'd found.
Heartbroken down.
Heartbroken down.
Heartbroken down.
