

Something More

Dave Barnes

It's a good goodbye to sleeping-in-weekends.
But every restless night is worth what I'm feeling.

It don't matter what I gotta do,
I won't find anything better than you.
It don't matter what I've got to lose,
Ain't gonna find nothing better than you.

I've never felt like this before.
I knew I'd love you, but this is something more.
I've never felt like this before.
I knew I'd love you, but this is something more.

These golden days, they're ours for the taking.
Every memory is out there and waiting.

It don't matter what I gotta do,
I ain't found anything better than you.
It don't matter what I gotta lose,
Ain't gonna find nothing better than you.

I've never felt like this before.
I knew I'd love you, but this is something more.
I've never felt like this before.
I knew I'd love you, but this is something more.

Love, it's a feeling.
Love, it can break your heart.
Can't you see, you and me,
We had more than love could ever be, from the start.

I've never felt like this before.
I knew I'd love you, but this is something more.
I've never felt like this before.
I knew I'd love you, but this is something more.
