

The Legend Of Xanadu

Dave Dee, Dozy, Beaky, Mick & Tich

You'll hear my voice
On the wind cross the sand
If you should return
To that black, barren land
That bears the name of Xanadu

Cursed without hope
Was the love that I sought
Lost from the start
Was the duel that was fought
To win a heart in Xanadu

Now no footsteps leave their traces
Only shadows move in places where we used to go
And the buildings open to the sky
All echo with the vultures cry as if to show
Our love was for a day
And doomed to pass away
In Xanadu
In Xanadu
In Xanadu

(Spoken)

What was it to you that a man lay down his life for your love?
Were those clear eyes of yours ever filled with the pain and tears of grief?
Did you ever give yourself to any one man in this whole wide world?
Or did you love me and will you find your way back one day to Xanadu?

You'll hear my voice
On the wind cross the sand
If you should return
To that black, barren land
That bears the name of Xanadu

In Xanadu
In Xanadu
In Xanadu
