

Just Call Me Lonesome

Dave Dudley

Why must I love the heartless one who'll never know the harm she's done

Though love is blind I should have known just call me lonesome from now on

I climb the stairs up to my room but there's no one to meet me in the gloom

The silence tells me she is gone just call me lonesome from now on

These walls will hide me when I cry and I hope that heaven lets me die

What good is life when hope is gone just call me lonesome from now on

Just call me lonesome from now on
