My Body's At Home (but My Heart's On The Road)

Dave Dudley

I'm sittin' back easy in my easy chair watchin' the morning daw nin' fair My wife's cookin' breakfast and my little girl Is looking at her daddy like he owns the world I've got everything that a man could want My lips oughta smile but somehow they don't I feel a guilty lamp in my throat my body's at home but my hear t's on the road Alberquerque and New Orleans hamburgers and pinto beans Big mountains and river beds happy anywhere I lay my head I feel like I'm about to explode my body's at home but my heart 's on the road I love my family and I always will but I'm just no good when I' m sittin' still A quiet kind of love and me don't mix and you can't teach an ol d dog new tricks

So kiss me baby and hold me tight I'll try to get back by Satur day night I don't mean to hurt you Lord knows I don't

But my body's at home but my heart's on the road Alberquerque and New Orleans Alberquerque and New Orleans
