Short Memory

Dave Dudley

No need to tell me where you've been for I know who's in town a gain

And tonight you saw him secretly oh you've got a short memory Yes you've got a short memory you don't care how much you hurt me

So I guess this is where I came in I can see you'll take him ba ck again

And after all your promises to me oh yes you've got a short mem orv

And after all your promises to me oh yes you've got a short mem ory
