

Dynamite

Dave Edmunds

Well, send me love in a package labelled dynamite
I wanna feel an explosion when I hold you tight
I got a powerhouse of sexing waiting for you
When you come back into your loving baby's arms again

Sailing cross the stars into the silvery moon
If you want to know what happens, I could be there soon

Well, give me kisses that explode before my very eyes
I know the sight of you can generate a million sighs
I'm all set for detonation, baby don't you know
Three, two, one, zero, here I go

Sailing cross the stars into the silvery moon
If you wanna know what happens, I could be there soon
