

We were both wrong

Dave Edmunds

Well, my baby and I
Are apart, I'll tell you why
Now we both had views in a fight,
Why couldn't we say to each other,
"The truth was, we were both wrong?"

Well, day after day and night after night,
We would have done one another.
Why haven't we admitted to each other,
We were both wrong.

Coming out one better,
Meant more than a letter to each other,
Make a stand, don't back down,
Just stand your ground and you'll win.

I want you back, you can't beat 'em,
After all it's been so long.
I need your love so bad.
You're breaking my heart.
Why don't we say we were both wrong?

Coming out one better,
Meant more than one letter to each other,
Just make a stand, don't back down,
Just stand on your ground and you'll win.

I want you back, you can't beat 'em,
After all it's been so long.
I need your love so bad.
You're breaking my heart.
Why don't we say we were both wrong?

Well, you're breaking my heart.
Why can't we say we were both wrong?
