In the cold of the full moon On this night Time itself it slips away Now you are mine Slowly hours pass All through the night Together we can disappear For a while I am still Forever and ever and ever Now I am still Forever and ever and ever Endless Endless Now I am still Endless Endless Your body is endless

Watching the hourglass
On that night
We touched the stars
And reached the moon
For a time
I'm lost in a moment with you
It feels right
We're floating above the stars
You and I

I am still
Forever and ever and ever
Now I am still
Forever and ever and ever
Endless
Endless
Now I am still
Endless
Endless
Your body is endless
