

Stolen Away on 55th & 3rd

Dave Matthews Band

Hello, again.
It seems like forever between now and then.
You look the same.
I mean, you look different but you haven't changed.

Funny, to think how the time gets away.
Funny, how you take me right back again.

Stole me away.
The first time I saw you you did me that way.
What should I say?

I saw you laughing, when I was afraid I might get in the way.
I did not think I would see you again, SO How have you been?
Do you remember, I mean everything?

Stole me away.
The first time I saw you you did me that way.
What should I say?

Saw you there dancing, when I was afraid I might get in the way.
I did not think I would see you again.
Funny, to think how the time gets away.
Funny, how you take me right back again.
Funny, the feeling when forever ends.
Stole me away.
First time I saw you you did me that way,
What should I say?

Saw you there dancing, when I was afraid I might get in the way.
I never thought I would see you again, how have you been?
WATCHIN' THE YEARS AS THEY trickle away?
It's everything how time gets away.
Funny, how you take me right back again.
Steal me away.

Like the first time I saw you, you do me that way.
What should I say?
I see you there standing, and I am afraid I might get in the way.

I never thought I would see you again, how have you been?
Do you remember, I mean everything?
You steal me away.
LIKE the first time I saw you you do me that way
What can I say?
I see you standing, when I am afraid I might get in your way.
