You Never Know

Dave Matthews Band

Sitting still as stone watching, watching People walking by you wondering why No one ever stops to talk or thinks about it, if they ever did What if God shuffled by?

One day we might see Doing not a thing Breathing just to breathe We might find some reason

But rushing around seems what's wrong with the world Don't lose the dreams inside your head They'll only be there til you're dead Dream

Lying on the roof counting The stars that fill the sky I wonder if Someone in the heavens looking back down on me, I'll never know So much space to believe

Funny when you're small The moon follows the car There's no one but you see Hey, the moon is chasing me

I worried if I looked away she'd be gone Don't lose the dreams inside your head They'll only be there til you're dead Dream

Walking through the wood No cares in the world The world has come to play She's all mine just for a day

There's not a moment to lose in the game Don't let the troubles in your head Steal too much time you'll soon be dead So play

All fall down It won't be so long now Out of the darkness comes light like a flash You think you can you think you can Sometimes that is the problem Dream little darling dream

Spinning on the wind The leaf fell from the limb

But everyday should be a good day to die Oh all fall down It won't be too long now Every fire dies I find it hard to explain how I got here I think I can I think I can Then again I will falter Dream little darling dream

Spinning on the wind The leaf fell from the limb
