

Waiting For Yesterday

David Archuleta

You and me, all alone, girl
What's going on?
Would you tell me what's wrong?
It's like you're locked up in your own world
Ooh, with nothin' to say

You keep me guessing but I see in your eyes
He made you promises but gave you lies
You're shutting down because you're so sure
That I'll be another mistake

I know that he left you in pieces
You know that I won't be that way
I'm not gonna treat you like he did
Ooh, whatever it takes

You think history is repeated
You keep on pushing me away
Oh, but nothing's gonna change
Waiting for yesterday

Is it worth it any longer?
So scared of falling again
Yesterday can make you stronger
So, why do you feel alone?

You know I love better than he ever did
This could be all you ever needed
Hold onto me and just remember
Ooh no, never let go

I know that he left you in pieces
You know that I won't be that way
I'm not gonna treat you like he did
Ooh, whatever it takes

You think history is repeated
You keep on pushing me away
Oh, but nothing's gonna change
Waiting for yesterday

I'm the one for you tonight
I'm the one for you forever
If it takes a little time
(Whatever it takes)

I'm the one for you tonight
I'm the one for you forever
If it takes a little time
(Whatever it takes)

I know that he left you in pieces
You know that I won't be that way
I'm not gonna treat you like he did
Ooh, whatever it takes

You think history is repeated

You keep on pushing me away
Oh, but nothing's gonna change
Waiting for yesterday

I know that he left you in pieces
You know that I won't be that way
I'm not gonna treat you like he did
Ooh, whatever it takes

You think history is repeated
You keep on pushing me away
Oh, but nothing's gonna change
Waiting for yesterday
