Grain Of Salt

David Ball

You caged the wild man that raged inside me Took a hell bent cowboy, made his hands sure and steady But today when you walked out, what was I gonna do? But reach for the closest thing, I could hold on to

Yeah, I'm taking this heartache with a grain of salt A little lime and tequila, as the teardrops fall And I'm gonna sit here until I chase every memory off I'm taking this heartache with a grain of salt

Sittin' in the shadows, as the sun goes down A little loose change will buy another round Oh, come tomorrow morning, there'll be a high price to pay Oh, but that's all right because tonight, I ain't feeling no pa in

Yeah, I'm taking this heartache with a grain of salt A little lime and tequila, as the teardrops fall And I'm gonna sit here until I chase every memory off I'm taking this heartache with a grain of salt

Yeah I'm gonna sit here until I chase every memory off Taking this heartache with a grain of salt
