Ching-a-ling

David Bowie

Whilst flying through an azure cloud A crystal girl i'd spy She kissed the blue bird's honey tongue And stuttered as she sighed I wish to sing the chicken song Ching-a-ling song is fine I'd give my jewels and caviar To make this daydream mine Ching-a-ling, ching-a-ling Doo dah doo doo dah dah, doo dah dah dah dah dah dah dah While stepping through a heaven's eye Two lover souls we spied They wished the cloud boys sang to me A cheerful happy cry

We love to play our love-strong hearts No better do we know No gifts of money do we give For love is all we own Na Ching-a-ling, ching-a-ling Na Ching-a-ling, ching-a-ling,
