Teenage Wildlife

David Bowie

Well, how come you only want tomorrow With its promise of something hard to do A real life adventure worth more than pieces of gold Blue skies above and sun on your arms strength in your stride And hope in those squeaky clean eyes You'll get chilly receptions everywhere you go Blinded with desire — guess the season is on

So you train by shadow boxing, search for the truth
But it's all, but it's all used up Break open your million dollar weapon
And you push , still you push, still you push your luck

A broken nosed mogul are you One of the new wave boys9

Same old thing in brand new drag Comes sweeping into view, oh-ooh
As ugly as a teenage millionaire Pretending
it's a whizz kid world You'll take me aside, and say
"Well, David, what shall I do?
They wait for me in the hallway"
I'll say "Don't ask me, I don't know any hallways"
But they move in numbers and they've got me in a corner
I feel like a group of one, no-no
They can't do this to me
I'm not some piece of teenage wildlife

Those midwives to history put on their bloody robes

The word is that the hunted one is out there on his own You're alone for maybe the last time

And you breathe for a long time

Then you howl like a wolf in a trap

And you daren't look behind

You fall to the ground like a leaf from the tree And look up one time at that vast blue sky Scream out aloud as they shoot you down
No no, I'm not a piece
of teenage wildlife
I'm not a piece
of teenage wildlife

And no one will have seen and no one will confess
The fingerprints will prove that you coudn't pass the test There'll be others on the line filing past, who'll whisper low
I miss you he really had to go Well each to his own, he was Another piece of teenage wildlife, oh-oh-oh-ohh
Another piece of teenage wildlife, oh-oh-oh-ohh Another piece of teenage wild...
Wild
Wild
Wild
