The Man Who Sold the World

David Bowie

We passed upon the stair, we spoke of was and when Although I wasn't there, he said I was his friend Which came as some surprise, I spoke into his eyes I thought you died alone, a long long time ago

Oh no, not me I never lost control You're face to face With the man who sold the world

I laughed and shook his hand, and made my way back home I searched for form and land, for years and years I roamed I gazed a gazely stare at all the millions here We must have died alone, a long long time ago

Who knows? Not me We never lost control You're face to face With the man who sold the world

Who knows? Not me We never lost control You're face to face With the man who sold the world
