Laying in the green grass in an open atmosphere staring at the blue sky with everything so clear with no one next to me I got nowhere else to be, But right here

In a busy world sometimes we forget to breathe trapped inside the daily grind and that's all there seems to be

Oh but there's more to it than that take your time to just relax and feel the breeze

Oh, Oh, Oh, just let go Oh, Oh, Oh, just let go

Thinking about nothing a moment just for me like the clouds up in the air a sacred kind of peace I gotta unwind myself close my eyes and just breathe

Tomorrow can wait for me Tomorrow can wait for me
