

Something To Believe

David Choi

Toss and turning around
Hearing life's crazy sounds
Outside my window
I'm gonna stay here in bed
Covers over my head
I feel so tired

The world can wait for me cuz the past few nights I couldn't sleep cuz I've been thinking about you lately the thought you makes me crazy

Please come back
I want you here
Right by my side
Oh please come back
Oh girl I need
Something to believe
Something to believe

If I only knew
How to reach you
I'd grab your hand and
Take you where you belong
Here inside my arms
Hold you close, that's what I'd do

I'll just wait for you
And you could maybe make my dreams come true
Oh I've been thinking about you lately
I driving myself too crazy

Please come back
I want you here
Right by my side
Oh please come back
Oh girl I need
Something to believe, something to believe
Something to believe, oh something to believe

If I could take you away?
Would you go would you stay?
Could you love me today, today, today
Could you love me today, today, today

Please come back
I want you here
Right by my side
Oh please come back
Oh girl I need
Something to believe, something to believe
Something to believe, oh something to believe
