

Uneasy

David Choi

I don't like it when you hang out with him
You tell me that you're friends
I'm jealous

You say "I love you"
And I'm the only one you'll kiss
And I'm the only one you'll miss
I'm jealous

Oh my crazy imagination
Takes me in your shoes
He drives a better car
He's better looking than me
You get along so well
When you're with him I'm just someone else
I know this isn't true
'Cause I know when I look at you
It's uneasy when I'm waiting for you

All the questions that I tried to deny
They're hiding deep inside
I don't want it
So much worse when you cannot see it hurts
And I feel so insecure
I don't want it

Oh my crazy imagination
Takes me in your shoes
He drives a better car
He's better looking than me
You get along so well
When you're with him I'm just someone else
I know this isn't true
'Cause I know when I look at you
It's uneasy when I'm waiting for you

It's an illusion
I told myself
It's so confusing
So hard not to tell
Girl do you notice?
Girl can you see what you're doing to me?

He drives a better car
He's better looking than me
You get along so well
When you're with him I'm just someone else
I know this isn't true
'Cause I know when I look at you
It's uneasy when I'm waiting for you
It's uneasy when I'm waiting for you
It's uneasy when I'm waiting for you
