

The Clearing

David Crosby

Fear doesn't live inside the blind, let go
And step into the clearing mind and soul.

This kind of love don't need a home
This kind a heart beats all alone
This kind of world, gonna let it go
Lay down the things that came before.

Firelight creates families, believe
Shadows become giants in the trees.

This kind of love don't need a home
This kind a heart beats all alone
This kind of world, gonna let it go
Lay down the things that came before.

The sky is dark enough to swallow you, a storm
Violence the least of all its forms.

This kind of love don't need a home
This kind a heart beats all alone
This kind of world, gonna let it go
Lay down the things that came before.

This kind of love don't need a home
This kind a heart beats all alone
This kind of world, gonna let it go
Lay down the things that came before.
