

Who's Gonna Love You Tonight

David Foster

You walk in, the room stops moving
Every heart is yours for stealing
And every man has to have you
You must live for this feeling

This is Heaven for you
Holding souls in your hand
Making love to every eye
That you draw in every man

Who's gonna love you tonight
Who's gonna watch you turn out the light
Every woman here can see, every man would kill to be
Who's gonna love you tonight

The feel in the air gets tighter
The fire in your eyes gets brighter
Nobody better, making it look easy
You're slowly driving these boys crazy

And one, only one
Gets to hear you scream tonight
But you like this part the best
When they wait as you decide

Who's gonna love you tonight
Who's gonna watch you turn out the light
Every woman here can see, every man would kill to be
Who's gonna love you tonight

Who's gonna love you
Every woman here can see
Every man would kill to be
Who's gonna love you tonight

Who's gonna love you tonight
Who's gonna watch you turn out the light
Every woman here can see, every man would kill to be
Who's gonna love you tonight
