Dead In The Water

People stand in line People stand in line People stand in line A premonition of A Killers Angel Eyes Armageddon Skies Tell it like it is It's like the old man says We're dead in the water now We're dead in the water.

They come from miles around They come from miles around They come from miles around In avarice and love To suckle on the blood Of some forgotten god Sell it like it is It's like the old man says We're dead in the water now We're dead in the water now Dead in the Water

A simple act of faith A simple act of faith A simple act of faith The colour and the creed The cancer and its seed Crackles on the mic Call it what you like We're dead in the water now We're dead in the water now We're dead in the water now
