

It's Alright

David Guetta

From Brooklyn to LA From Japan and even you Paris you can have it and you can do what you want to do it's alright, yes it's alright it's alright and it's ok 'cause trouble don't last always you know, sometimes you go through such trouble you think that nobody nobody cares it's gonna be alright and it's gonna be ok honey because the universe, yes, well, let's go do what too much you know that you can feel good about yourself 'cause nobody else is gonna do it for you so you got to make up in your mind that you are gonna get there and do what you got to do make, what you want to happen, happen and that's all I'm saying there is a winner in you there is a greatness in you there is somebody in you that wants to come out and let you know that you are somebody
you know what? you are gonna go higher and you are gonna go higher
and it's alright you know
no man can take it away from you because that's your gift that was given from god so you know what? It's gonna be OK because you know what?
Let that last tear fall because it's gonna be alright you don't have to worry about them you don't even think about them no negativity, all positive
