

Bring Me Back

David Hodges

Feeling so lost beyond belief
Leaving the fold to rescue me
You are my shepherd
The valley is low and the stakes are high
Wrapped in your love you hold me tight
You are my father

I turn my eyes to you
Cause you know what I've been through
And you know just what to do
To Bring me back
My strength is not my own
And your love is all I know
So I'll trust in you alone
To bring me back

In you I find peace amid the storm
Your loving arms will keep me warm
Cause you are my shelter
Drowning in sin you gave your life
Calling me son with your sacrifice
You are my father

So I turn my eyes to you
Cause you know what I've been through
And you know just what to do
To bring me back
My strength is not my own
And your love is all I know
So I'll trust in you alone
To bring me back

I Don't have the strength to keep on hiding from the truth
So father please bring me back to you

So I'll turn my eyes to you
Cause you know what I've been through
And you know just what to do
To bring me back
My strength is not my own
And your love is all I know
So I'll trust in you alone
To bring me back
So I'll trust in you alone
To bring me back
So I'll trust in you alone
To bring me back
