

Love Looks Good On You

David Houston

It's good to see you you're looking fine love sure looks good on you

That smile you're wearing makes it so plain to see

Love looks good on you but how blue look on me

I'm glad you're happy while I'm feeling so blue love sure looks good on you

That smile you're wearing makes it so plain to see

Love looks good on you but how blue look on me

Now I'll admit that he's won you and I'll admit that love becomes you

Now you've got everything except my memory

Love looks good on you but how blue look on me

Yes I'll admit that he's won you

Love looks good on you but how blue look on me
