

The Love Of A Man

David Kersh

Your eyes - shine like moonlight
Your lips - soft as rain
When we touch, it's fire at midnight
My heart calls out your name
I would walk the darkest highway
Just to know your secret charms
I have dreamed of kissing you softly
As you fall asleep in my arms

I could be there when you need me
Say the word and I'll make my stand
Take away all the fear I'm feeling
Till all that's left is the love of a man

You laugh and I'll laugh with you
When you cry, I'll share your tears
I believe in this love I can give you
The kind of love that could last through the years

I could be there when you need me
Say the word and I'll make my stand
Take away all the fear I'm feeling
Till all that's left is the love of a man

Oh, I could be there when you need me
Say the word and I'll make my stand
Take away all the fear I'm feeling
Till all that's left is the love of a man
