

Things Your Daddy Wouldn't Want Us To Do

David Kersh

Wait till you're sure they're sound asleep
Then say a little prayer, those stairs don't creak
Where the river runs deep and the wildflowers bloom
We'll do some things your daddy wouldn't want us to do

The water will be warm from the August sun
But the middle of the night is when it's most fun
We'll take a little dip in our birthday suits
And do some things your daddy wouldn't want us to do

Aww, if he only knew what was going on
Under that moon, till the edge of dawn
He'd skin my hide, tan my tail
Run me out of town on a one-way rail
I'll take that chance for you
Let's do somethings your daddy wouldn't want us to do

Thinking of your kiss gives me a chill
A little bit of risk and a whole lot of thrill
At the bend in the river we're breaking some rules
Let's do some things your daddy wouldn't want us to do

Aww, if he only knew what was going on
Under that moon till the edge of dawn
He'd skin my hide, tan my tail
Run me out of town on a one-way rail
I'll take that chance for you
Let's do some things your daddy wouldn't want us to do

Aww, if he only knew what was going on
Under that moon till the edge of dawn
He'd skin my hide, tan my tail
Run me out of town on a one-way rail
I'll take that chance for you
Let's do somethings your daddy wouldn't want us to do
Do somethings your daddy wouldn't want us to do