

The Bottom Line

David Lee Roth

Talk about meanwhile back at the ranch
The ugly duckings learn to dance
Ooh, spirits rising, miht be more
Gonna blow this whole town out the back door

Give 'em hell tonight
(Give 'em hell tonight)
Go west young man? Aww rite!!
Aww right, aww right

We'll burn the bridges if we please
(We'll burn the bridges if we please)
Or forever you can hold my peace

A little taste I can't stop
Tastes as sweet as soda pop
All dressed up and ready for the top

Yes, I got to have it
Got to have it
Got to have it
And that's my bottom line

Got to have it
Got to have it
Got to have it, have it one more time

Got to have it
Got to have it
Got to have it
And that's my bottom line

Got to have it
Got to have it
Got to have it, baby

You wanna feel 100 proof?
I got news for you
I seen some folks fall and a couple fly
And some of them just dies

Ain't nothing's once upon a time
Got a rosy future and a big behind
Might get lucky, never mind
I hear beginners do it all the time

Got to have it
Got to have it
Got to have it
And that's my bottom line

Got to have it
Got to have it
Got to have it, have it one more time

Got to have it
Got to have it

Got to have it
And that's my bottom line

Got to have it
Got to have it
Got to have it, baby

Yes, I got to have it
Got to have it
Got to have it
And that's my bottom line

Got to have it
Got to have it
Got to have it, have it one more time

Got to have it
Got to have it
Got to have it
And that's my bottom line

Got to have it
Got to have it
Got to have it, baby

Yes, I got to have it
Got to have it
Got to have it
