

I Know I Shouldn't

David Nail

I know I shouldn't but I

I guess you're surprised to hear from me, I hope it's not too late to call

So you have nothin' left to say, then I'll just talk

I'm the one who broke your heart, I'm the one who let us down

I'm the reason that we're not together now

I hear you found somebody else, but baby I can't help myself

I know I shouldn't miss your touch

I know I shouldn't lie awake

Thinkin I could win ya back

Prayin now it's not too late

Would you believe me if I said I still love you?

I know I shouldn't but I do

Tell me what's up with your new friend

I know I shouldn't even ask

It's not fair to interfere

I had my chance

I told you that we were through (That we were through)

But I've never gotten over you
