She Rides Away

David Nail

Sunset on the chapel, when I close my eyes I see her and she's prayin' Ripples in the holy water, kneelin' in the light that is fadin' Askin' for forgiveness cause she knows that it is me that she i s breakin' Angel flyin' with my heart She rides on the edge of no tomorrow in a rusty El Camino She flies as wild as the wind on the border of Laredo She rides away Questions in the dark She rides away Angel flyin' with my heart Mystery surrounds her, she's the moonlight in the daylight, ain 't no answer Blacktop on the sand while the desert just goes on and on forev er she told me when I met her she would leave like it was written in red letters Angel flyin' with my heart She rides on the edge of no tomorrow in a rusty El Camino She flies as wild as the wind on the border of Laredo She rides away Questions in the dark She rides away Angel flyin' with my heart Sunset on a chapel, when I close my eyes I see her and she's pr ayin' Askin' for forgiveness cause she knows that it is me that she i s breakin' She rides on the edge of no tomorrow in a rusty El Camino She flies as wild as the wind on the border of Laredo She rides away Questions in the dark She rides away Angel flyin' with my heart Angel flyin' with my heart
