

Someone Who Cares

David Phelps

There is someone who cares
Oh there's someone who dares
To love you and His arms are open wide
Waiting there for you to run inside
There is someone who cares
And when you reach for Him he's there
I pray you'll learn somehow, somewhere
Jesus is that someone who cares
One mistake made in your past holds to you
Hard and fast and mocks what might have been
There's no place for you to hide
You know cause you have tried
Time and time again
Im not gonna stand here and tell you
Everythings gonna be alright
There is no way that I could know
Just what you're going through tonight
Oh but there's someone who cares
There is someone who dares
To love you and His arms are open wide
Waiting there for you to run inside
There is someone who cares
And when you reach for Him he's there
I pray you'll learn somehow somewhere
That Jesus is that someone who cares
I can see it hurts you bad
I don't want to see you sad
Just open up your heart to find the Love like youve never ever had
There is someone who cares
Yeah, there's someone who dares
To love you and his arms are open wide
Waiting there for you to run inside
There is someone who cares
Oh, and when you reach for Him he's there
I pray you'll learn somehow, somewhere
That Jesus is that someone who cares
I pray that somehow, and somewhere
Youll learn that Jesus is that someone who cares
I know Jesus really really cares
