

Everything's Coming Up Love

David Ruffin

Love is a flower that blooms
In the springtime,
('In the springtime')
Beneath the light of the moon
In the springtime;
('In the springtime')
We're groovin' together, like two turtle doves;
Since I met you baby,
Everything's coming up love,
('Everything's coming up love')
Everything's coming up love, baby,
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')

Love is a song in the breeze,
In the springtime,
('In the springtime')
Sung by the birds and the bees,
In the springtime.
('In the springtime')
Lovers are strollin',
Blue skies above,
Dreams are unfoldin',
'Cause everything's coming up love,
('Everything's coming up love')
Everything's coming up love, baby,
Love, love, love, lo-o-o-o-ve.

('In the springtime')

(Bridge)
Girl, if you're thinking
What I'm thinking of,
Bells will be ringing,
'Cause everything's coming up love.
('Everything's coming up love')
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
Oooooooo baby, yes it is.

(Bridge)
('Everything's coming up love')
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
('Everything's coming up love')
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
('Everything's coming up love')
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
('Everything's coming up love')
('Everything's coming up love')
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
('Everything's coming up love')
('Everything's coming up love')
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
('Everything's coming up love')
('Everything's coming up love')
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
('Everything's coming up love')

('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
('Everything's coming up love')
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
Everything's coming up love, baby
('Everything's coming up love')
In the springtime.
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
A stroll in the park after dark,
('Everything's coming up love')
Everything's coming up love, baby
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
We're grooving together, like two turtle doves,
('Everything's coming up love')
Since I met you baby,
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
Everything's coming up love
('Everything's coming up love')
Everything's coming up love, baby
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
Songs, sung by the birds and the bees in the springtime...
('Everything's coming up love, love, love, love')
