

Message Home

David Usher

If I fell in love,
Would you sold me out,
Would you take me deep,
Would you go without?
If I never leave,
Took the pills again,
Would you love me more?

If I buried you,
Would you bury me?
If I broke in two,
Would that set me free?
If I never need,
Took the life again,
Would you love me more?

And what did you think we would find?
Traveled a million miles but still no sign,
And what did they think we would find?
Pile into anyone we've all gone blind,
Message home

If I'll only you,
We'll keep it complicated,
If you never find out,
Will we still be waiting,
If I'm too strung out,
And I follow you,
Would you need me more?

If I never try,
And we never take,
If we never bend,
Then we'll never break,
If we stimulate,
And we sexualize,
Will you need it more?

And what did you think we would find?
Traveled a million miles but still no sign,
And what did they think we would find?
Pile into anyone we've all gone

So I'm not in love,
I can sort it out,
You can take me in it if,
Or I will go without,
If we never need,
If the pills again,
Would you love me more?

If I warn you,
Will you warn me?
If I break you down,
Will that set you free?
If we never need,
The life again,

Would you love me more,
And more?

And what did you think we would find?
Traveled a million miles but still no sign,
And what did they think we would find?
Pile into anyone we've all gone blind

Message home.