Dawid Podsiadło

I'm the most little innocent liar you have known
Though you're giving me a whole lot of your love
I can feel, I can almost feel that I'm there
Touching the gate of your mind telling you I'm bad

And I just want you to know, know, know, know
You are too kind to be fooled like that
That's why I will be honest, love, my love, love, love
You deserve to meet a better man

I'm a crook, I'm a fraud, I'm a shark, a deceiver
While you're sweet and you're good all the beauty you deliver
I will only break your heart
Like I did it in the past

That's why I want you to know, know, know, know
You should realize who I really am
I really mean it's real love, love
I told you so you could finally see

And I'm on the street again the only place
Which welcomes me with open arms and gives me warm farewells
I think it's time for me to be a decent man
Well, hello girl, I'd like to know what is your name?

I don't want you to know, know, know, know
You have just been caught into the sweetest trap
I'm afraid that I can't let you go, go, go, go, go, go, go
Until I feel bad 'bout lying again
