

I'll Be Around

Dawn Golden

You know I understand the way you are
You don't understand yourself, so far
Exactly where you started from
Undoing what you haven't done
You know I understand the way you are

I know what you think, but it's not true
It's not hate but love I have for you
And it won't be long, you see
'Till everybody thinks like me
I know what you think, but it's not true

You can only see what you believe
You can't even tell me what you need
It's feeling deep inside your mind
That everything is doing fine
I know what you see, but it's not true

Shall I wait around for you to call?
May I ask you why you wait at all?
You know that I can't live without you
Let me tell you more about you
Shall I wait around for you to call?

I'll be around, I'll be around
