Nice Surprise

Dawn Golden

Don't let it scare you Don't be afraid You're cycling through many different things Many things

Glancing all around you feel It's all so incomplete But all it is, is something new That shook you off your feet

It's just a nice surprise it's just a nice surprise
It's just a nice surprise for you

When you feel so indisposed You don't know what to say Listen to the music of the day Any day

Don't relate something new To something in your past That is what will hang you up so fast
