

Reaching Out To You

Dawn Golden

Walk along and wonder why
Feeling all the things inside you
Haven't had a chance
Feeling half alive
And feeling down about the times
You said you really didn't care

Knowing friends are close beside us
Sharing separate portions
Of a love that still is ours
Don't depend on someone else
To see you through yourself

Reaching out to you
Leaving me behind
Shearing all our love
Sharing peace of mind
When all doubt has left me
And I'm in your arms again
I'll know
