

Somethings change babe
Somethings stay the same
Sometimes love wins
Sometimes it's a losing game
Tried to do it the easy way but
You seen how big my heart was
Had my share of hurricanes
The proof is in the blood

But I can't run
Away from love (I can't)
I can't front
You're the one (You know you're the one)

Say you can't go back
The same way that you came (Same way that you came uh)
Been so busy fighting
Couldn't see it right in my face, yeah
Light at the end it hit me
Like a runaway train
But you drew me in like
A moth to a flame

I guess I'll give it up
All for love (I'll give it all for love)
I didn't see it coming
Was too closed off (I was too closed off)

But I can't run
Away from love (You'll never see me running)
I can't front (Can't front)
You're the one

I put my hands up
Surrender
86 on pretending
Heart is unlocked, so enter
Defenses are down, I'm ready
To love

I guess I'll run
Straight to love
You're the one

I guess I'll give it up
All for love
I didn't see it coming
Was too closed off

But I can't run
Away from love
I can't front
You're the one
