

Honest

Dawn Richard

Just gotta be honest
Just gotta be

I never really got over that dumb shit you put me through Still bringing up old shit like its brand new
Just gotta be honest
Loving you is like smoking spliff
It's a temporary high laced with side effects
Damn, I rather be honest

I can stay, but it's draining trying to love you
Pity fools who keep running back so pitiful
I rather be honest
The sex is is good, so good that I get clouded vision
I think that love is good
That shit ain't good
That shit no good

I rather be honest
I love you
Just gotta be honest
Wanna be next to you
Right next to you
I hate you
Hate you unless I'm touching you
Then I love you
Then I want you
Shit should I feel like this
I smoke until I choke on you
I'm over you
I'm not over you
I rather be honest

I wanna be over you
I wanna lay right next to you
I wanna be away from you
I love you
Can't with you
I wanna be right next to you

I rather be honest
I'm not over you, not over you
Honest
Wanna be next you, Right next you
I rather be honest
I'm not over you, not over you
Honest
Wanna be next you, Right next you
I hate you
Hate you unless I'm touching you
Then I love you
Then I want you
Shit should I feel like this
I smoke until I choke on you
I'm over you
I'm not over you
I rather be honest

I just wanted to be honest
