

Intro (In The Hearts Tonight)

Dawn Richard

Shadow of an army
They never saw us in their path
Too busy eyes in the clouds
Never give a thought about you ooh

I know how you can hang your head so low
When the lies are weighing you down

What are you fighting for
I need you to come out of the dark
Oh I

I really wanna break you out
Don't you know that your so invincible
Don't you know you can be incredible
No way I'm gonna let you loose uh

Cause this is our moment no-o-ow
Between this head and hands a heart to fight
Walks into the flames and dark tonight
Yea ahh

So get ready for war
Yea get ready for war
Put your battle suit on
Yous a champion
We can never be touched
Ain't no stoppin us
Destiny written
And the stars look uuuuu

I can feel it in the air in the hearts tonight
Hearts tonight
We been waiting for this chance
And now its ours tonight
Ours tonight
Yeah

So get ready for war
Yea get ready for war
Put your battle suit on
Yous a champion
We can never be touched
Ain't no stoppin us
Destiny written
And the stars look uuuuu

I can feel it in the air in the hearts tonight
Hearts tonight
We been waiting for this chance
And now its ours tonight
Ours tonight
Yeah

So get ready for war
We gotta fight for our right

We gotta fight for our love
So get ready for war
We gotta fight for our prides
So get ready for war
We gotta fight so our hearts are one
So get
So get ready for war
So get ready for war
Get ready for war uh huh uh
