

Lazarus

Dawn Richard

I watch my soul rise up
Rise up, rise up

My ignorance is a human being
My ascension is a spirit being
I can be both and the same
I didn't change I became
My ignorance is a human being
My ascension is a spirit being
I can be both and the same
I didn't change I became

I watch my worries rise up
Rise up, rise up
This life, don't know, rise up
Rise up, rise up

They slept on our rise up
They slept on the rise up
They slept on the the rise up
The rise up
The rise up

My hunger is a wolf dying
My ego is a key thing
I can be both and the same
I didn't change I became

I watch my worries rise up
Rise up, rise up
This life, oh no, rise up
Rise up, rise up

I watch my soul rise up
Rise up, rise up
This life don't mind rise up
Rise up, rise up
