

Return Of A Queen

Dawn Richard

I done lost my pride a long, long, long time ago
I should have let it go, oh whoa
I'm searching, tryin' find my my way back
Way back to the throne, oh

And I know if I can find both crown, break these walls
Then maybe I'll get home, oho, whoa, oho
I'm taking back what's mine, mine, mine
No more will I, be pushed to the floor, oh

You did what you want to me
Gave all that I can be
But still you took more from me
Get all the facts from me
I saw it was blasphemy
I knew there was more to me
He claim my royalty
It's the return of a queen

Maybe it's a shame, shame that my game gone
Has come to this
Whoa, listen
I didn't want the world bomb, gone,
It's time to destroy
But where my heart ache is, hey
So as the bridge falls, falls, down, down
Close with every inch, hey

Pushing through the crowd now I make my vow
Love will always win, yeah, yeah!

You did what you want to me
Gave all that I can be
But still you took more from me
Get all the facts from me
I saw it was blasphemy
I knew there was more to me
He claim my royalty
It's the return of a queen

You did what you want to me
Gave all that I can be
But still you took more from me
Get all the facts from me
I saw it was blasphemy
I knew there was more to me
He claim my royalty

It's the return of a queen, queen.
