

The Planet's Dream

Dawnless

Stuck deep in my mind Hidden from you all There're the things that make me act the way I do

Piled up over the years Most ain't no choices
It's all I've been taught to make sure I fit too Just to make sure I fit the planet's dream

You're dreaming your life
As you stick to the rules
You're drowning in the flood of their lies You've been fashioned by their eyes
Trying to obey all theses liars Even in mind you hear
laughters
Oh! Get rid of them!

Can't love myself
Can't even see hope I
just keep on beating my own guts
I do!

Can't swallow my mistakes Have to bring them up
Just to make me... oh make me feel weak

You're dreaming your life
As you stick to the rules
You're drowning in the flood of their lies

You've been fashioned by their eyes
Trying to obey all theses liars
Even
in mind you hear laughters

Tell me
Can't this all be wrong?
What then is true?
I trusted this shit my entire life
Bonds that were tied long Are hard to cut loose
Oh! I wanna be myself again

Wake the life sleeping in your heart
Bring back to light your deepest wishes

Fear no darkness Dare wander off the beaten track Oh!

You're dreaming your life
As you stick to the rules
You're drowning in the flood of their lies You've been fashioned by
their eyes
Trying to obey all theses liars
Even in mind you hear
laughters
Oh! Get rid of them!
