

Exclusive (No Excuses)

DAY26

Life is such a crazy thing
It's never really what it seems
'Cause first we were chilling now I catching feelings
Can you tell me what this means?

I'm going through my voice mail
And I'm saving every message you sent
Tryna read between the lines
To see if there was something I missed

All of a sudden, my vision became so clear
Everything I needed was right here before me
So pressed to let you know just how you make me feel
Never had a feeling that's so real control me
And I'm ready girl, I'm ready

Don't wanna play no games, I want you exclusive
Baby, we should just do this
With the feelings so strong how can we go on?

No games, I want you exclusive
There's no more excuses, the feeling's so right
I want you girl, I need you girl

I really love your company, hate it when you gotta leave
Another opportunity for me to say everything
So tell me if I'm bugging when you look at me like that I wanna say something but I don't know how you're gonna react

All of a sudden my vision became so clear
Everything I needed was right here before me
So pressed to let you know just how you make me feel
Never had a feeling that's so real control me
And I'm ready girl, I'm ready

Don't wanna play no games, I want you exclusive
Baby, we should just do this
With the feelings so strong how can we go on?

No games, I want you exclusive
There's no more excuses, the feeling's so right
I want you, girl, I need you, girl

Oh, you knew it all along what was going on
Let me stake my claim before it's too late
I don't care how this may sound but you need to know right now
So I might as well just come on out and tell ya

All of a sudden my vision became so clear
Everything I needed was right here before me
So pressed to let you know just how you make me feel
Never had a feeling that's so real control me
And I'm ready girl, I'm ready

Don't wanna play no games, I want you exclusive
Baby, we should just do this
With the feelings so strong how can we go on?

No games, I want you exclusive
There's no more excuses, the feeling's so right
I want you girl, I need you girl

Play no games, I want you exclusive
Baby, we should just do this
With the feelings so strong how can we go on?

No games, I want you exclusive
There's no more excuses, the feeling's so right
I want you girl, I need you girl
