

Got the Feeling

Daya

Stuck between the wrong and the right thing
Can't make up my mind, it's got a mind of its own
Felt a spark, but there was no lightning
Could've walked away, but still I'm coming back for more

Oh, I'm loving your butterfly kisses
But it's like something is missing
Gonna save quitting your for another day
I got the feeling that it's not gonna work out
I got the feeling that you're not my type
Maybe the reason all this shit keeps on happening
Happening 'cause I like the feeling
No, it's not for life, but it's alright right now
Right now, I got the feeling right now
It's alright right now

Stuck between the green and the red light
Can't make up my mind, should I stop or should I go?
Find it hard to leave after midnight
Using the excuse that it's too late to walk me home

Oh, I'm loving your summertime kisses
But it's like something is missing
Gonna save quitting your for another day

I got the feeling that it's not gonna work out
I got the feeling that you're not my type
Maybe the reason all this shit keeps on happening
Happening 'cause I like the feeling
No, it's not for life, but it's alright right now
Right now, I got the feeling it's alright right now
It's alright right now

I got the feeling, got the feeling
I got the feeling, got the feeling
I got the feeling, got the feeling, whoa oh
Oh, I'm loving your butterfly kisses
But it's like something is missing
Gonna save quitting your for another day

I got the feeling that it's not gonna work out
I got the feeling that you're not my type
Maybe the reason all this shit keeps on happening
Happening 'cause I like the feeling
No, it's not for life, but it's alright right now
Right now, I got the feeling right now
Maybe the reason all this shit keeps on happening
Happening 'cause I like the feeling
No, it's not for life, but it's alright right now
